579	1840: 1 d. black, Plate 4, lettered NK, touched at base, used on 1840 cover from Newcastle Under Lyme (Oct 23) to the Ship Hotel in Dover, tied by red-brown Maltese Cross. On arrival in Dover, the cover was re-addressed to "Poste Restante, Naples" and carried privately to Naples. Held at the Poste Restante for six months (May, 1841) and returned (note 'T.S.' handstamp, Transit Sarde, in red) to the 'Clarendon Hotel' in Piccadilly, with red London cds (May 19) and struck with framed LCO POSTAGE NOT PAID / TO LONDON handstamp in red. Forwarded again to Stone, Staffordshire with arrival cds (May 21) in black and charged there at 1/7d. due to pay. Cleaned and stamp removed and replaced, but a remarkable cover that opens well for Exhibition display. Cert. BPA (2013). Note: The cover is addressed to the 'Ship Inn' in Dover - the owner of this establishment was an illegal Forwarding Agent. The reference for this comes from an 1840 1d. Mulready privately forwarded to France with the notation inside "send your letter to me under cover to the Master of the Ship Inn, Dover, with a request that he will put it into the French Post and I will get it for 3d...". The Ship Inn was located in Worthington's celebrated Hotel & Ship Inn, once known as the Royal Ship Hotel, on Customs House Quay in Dover. From 1823 onwards Mail Coaches left here every evening for London. Note: This is, in all probability, the earliest cover known bearing a Postage Stamp on a letter from Italy.	2 ✉	10'000	(€ 9'300)

734	Thomas Waghorn 1829/30: Signature of Thomas Waghorn on a memorandum stating 'Thomas Waghorn do hereby declare I was examined by the Committee of Enquiry alluded in, for four hours upon oath...and the Commissioners told me that they should lay the subject before Parliament of 1830 recommending me for assistance of money from that body, (signed) Thos Waghorn'; also an 1829 letter from Lambeth to Waghorn discussing the quality of Van Diemen's Land coal against that from Newcastle and that their strengths for powering steam were roughly the same, ending: 'Trusting that this information may prove favourable to the Eastern World'.		150	(€ 140)
735	Thomas Waghorn 1834: Waghorn's hand-written copy of a letter sent to the Board of Trade in London (wmk. paper dated 1833), regarding the Pasha of Egypt 'being ready tro entertain a Treaty of Commerce', also stating 'I have just returned from Egypt & India, I have been into the interior of Arabia to collect the information on matters of trade so as to make an Indian Steam Communication Agency of the Red Sea an establishment of profit'. The letter together with an answer from Thomas Lack suggesting Waghorn contact the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs (14 July, 1834). (Photo = 157)		150	(€ 140)
736	Thomas Waghorn 1836: Letter of appreciation addressed to Thomas Waghorn, written in April 1836 from Alexandria and carried privately to Cairo 'we have much pleasure in testifying our approbation of your exertions and arrangements to facilitate our travelling from Suez to Alexandria...the journey through the desert have been compartively trifling..we do not heistate in recommending travellers to and from India to communicate with you..with our best wishes for the success of your establishment in Egypt...'. Together with an 1839 letter in Waghorn's own hand (signed by his pleased customers at base) headed 'Mahmoudie Canal' discussing the journey by 'Track Boat' from Alexandria to Atfe, and recommending the proposed Waghorn 'steam tug boat' route between Alexandria and Cairo, the letter signed by two gentleman from Canton and members of the Army in Madras and Bombay. (Photo = 157)	✉	150	(€ 140)

Thomas Waghorn keeping records

		Gibbons	Start price in CHF	Start price approx. €
737	Thomas Waghorn 1837 (May 15): Printed 32 page Booklet 'Egypt in 1837' by T. Waghorn with Waghorn's thoughts on Egypt 'this pamphlet is dedicated to the Members of Parliament... (to) induce in them some sort of sympathy for Egypt'...with notations on the strength of the Egyptian Army (7'450 troops in Kordofan & Sennar; 14'800 troops in Hejaz & Yemen), the strength of Egypt's Navy, Britain's possibility of stopping the threat of 'Russian Invasion of our Eastern Territories (India) will exist no longer' should Britain make a Treaty direct with Mohamed Ali and not with Turkey. Together with 28 sheets of hand-written thoughts by Waghorn on how to reduce the power of the French in Egypt, written in his own hand on 28 sheets with some corrections added in ink and pencil. A unique document along with a very rare Pamphlet.	(✉)	300	(€ 280)
738	Thomas Waghorn 1838: 'Mr. Waghorn's Letter Book' with manuscript copies of letters sent by Thomas Waghorn during February 1838, including a lost letter claim: 'Your letter per 'Berenice' directed to T. Waghorn, Alexandria went on to England by mistake for not having the stamp mark of one of our Agent's on it...for the future be sure to get it marked by my Bombay Agent'. Together with a copy of an invoice for the Bombay Courier 'My charge for Post Charges to you @ 6d. each on 991 papers = £24, 15s. d.', further comments incl. 'I spent last night drawing up a document about 'Steamboats on the Nile and Carriages over the Desert... would quicken the Mails by three days' and 'the boxes (from India) could be weighed at the Malta Quarantine in the presence of the French Consul..', many of the letters ending with Thomas Waghorn's signature. An extraordinary and unique historical document.	(✉)	300	(€ 280)
739	Thomas Waghorn 1839: Entire letter from Liverpool addressed to Thomas Waghorn in Cornhill, London charged at 11d. postage with 'Liverpool' cds in red (April 20) and London arrival, the contents being a copy of the Petition to Parliament (very much in Waghorn's favour 'last month our letters by a Private Agency' (Waghorn) arrived 'several day's earlier than the Govt. despatches') from the 'Liverpool East India Association' and a letter of appreciation: 'the thanks of this Meeting be presented to Mr. Waghorn for his exertions in the cause of Steam Navigation with India'.
