PRIVATE TREATY

Europe Transit Mail to 1800

An extensive research and study collection of European transit mail from the early 15th to the beginning of the 19th century. A total of over 900 covers document the various postal routes with many cancellations and surcharges from the early days of European postal exchanges across Europe.

The collection covers the entire European continent, mostly in cross-border traffic such as Italy - France or Germany - France with the corresponding border post offices and exchange offices. Another major section concerns postal exchanges with Belgium and Holland as well as Switzerland, Scandinavia, England, Portugal, Spain, Poland, Russia and the Baltic States.

Most of the covers are selected items that have been purchased at auctions or from some of the most internationally renowned collectors. The provenances read like a 'Who's Who' of the great and well-known old postal history collectors: Manfred Jacques, James van der Linden, Hans-Ulrich Sieber and Paolo Vollmeier.

This unique collection with lots of background information, photocopies and the working documents of a proven connoisseur of his subject is for sale here! All the material being offered can be viewed by appointment in our office or via our website www.corinphila.ch.

1092	1896/1939: A magnificent assembly comprising nearly 60 covers/cards featuring a wide array of "Palace Mail" postmarks, and two very rare telegrams (one sent by the Prince Ferdinand in 1907); predominantly with Sofia types, but also with datestamps from Euxinograd and the extremely rare Tzarska Bistritza (Hitzler cert.), including destinations, interesting endorsements such as the 1913 "Secret Cabinet of His Majesty the King ", registered mail, a good variety of issues with rare examples such as the 1896 Arms issue, and the only travelled cover recorded with bilingual postmark celebrating 60 years of this mail (Hitzler cert.) The collection ends with an interesting section dedicated to the 1964 exile issues. A very fine and rare collection, extremely difficult to duplicate nowadays.		✉	750	(€ 640)
1093	1914/18: Collection comprising 140 covers/cards/money order forms, with Bulgarian intervention in WWI, including censorships, occupations of Serbia, Thracia, Rumania (also with adhesives used/unused and very rare usages in Nothern Dobrudja) and Macedonia, including unusual money order forms and remarkable quantity of rare postmarks which deserve inspection, scarce manuscript usages, military mail from the war front, incoming Serbian P.O.W. mail sent from occupied territories, German and Austrian military mail in territories occupied by Bulgaria, French P.O.W, etc. Also a few newspapers and original photographs making up an interesting chapter of Bulgarian Postal History.		✉	750	(€ 640)
1094	Cancellations An extraordinary collection containing some hundreds of postal history items, few fragments and multiples, mounted on exhibition pages housed in six albums, featuring detailed descriptions stating, for each locality, the number of inhabitants (occasionally in various periods) and the date of opening of the corresponding Post Office. The collection comprises localities ranging populations from few dozens to few thousands of inhabitants, including which may be the 90% of the material extant in private hands from the "Small Lion" Issue to the end of WWI. A reference collection of major importance for advanced postal historians of Bulgaria, being nigh on impossible to duplicate.		✉(✉) △⊞	2'000	(€ 1'700)

Daniele Manin proclaiming the 'Venetian Repbulic'

1181	1848 (April 6) Castelfranco, Veneto: Entire lettersheet written by the postal clerk headed? Ufficio Postale di C'franco' and "Viva l'italia Unita! Viva la Libertà, Viva Pio IX" addressed to the Authority in Asolo, showing on reverse fine strike of the old Venetian handstamp of Castelfranco with the symbol of San Marco, 50 years after the official usage in the last period of the Ventian Republic (1796/98). Castelfranco together wih Marca Trevigiana joined the Daniele Manin's 'Venetian Republic', which was proclaimed on March 22, 1848. Volunteers provided financial resources and more to the patriotic cause. The postal clerk in his patriotic fervor didn't want to use any symbol of Lombardo-Veneto and used this old postmark of the former Republic of Venice. So the postal clerk created by his enthusiastic patriotisme a pre-philatelic rarity. See also attached article written by Franco Rigo. Also Alfredo Banci mentioned the 1848 usage in his handbook under Castelfranco No: 65B. rated +++. An outstanding historic item.	✉	2'500	(€ 2'125)

This is the first cover we have offered where the cover has travelled by the much slower land route (5 days instead of one day), due to the January date of the letter and a frozen Danube: a contemporary report in the 'Irish Times' stating that travel on the Danube was 'impractible' on the week in question due to the 'exceedingly rough weather'.*	22a	✉	500	(€ 425)

1448	1914/15: Postcard bearing 1914 20 pa. carmine tied by bilingual ARTWIN datestamp in black (Ziya/Bulent fig. 1) and by 'Mevrude' datestamp in black and what appears to be a violet Censor marking above. Extremely rare - the cancel used for a brief period when the Turkish Army liberated the city from Russian occupying Forces: the cancellation has to be used from late November 1914 until early March 1915 only, upon the Turks retreating from the city on March 14, 1915 the city was torched and it is believed this and the previous Russian cancellations were all burnt in the inferno. A great rarity of Armenian, Russian and Ottoman philately. Provenance: 'Cihangir', Corinphila sale 121 (April 29, 2000), lot 136.	234	✉	2'500	(€ 2'125)
